For the Love of a Horse: Museum's Special Exhibit Opening

Make plans early to attend the Opening of the Saddlebred Museum's 2008 exhibit For the Love of a Horse: Children & Saddlebreds. A reception will be held on Friday February 15, 2008 from 6:30 p.m. - 9:00 p.m. at the Museum in conjunction with ASHA's Annual Meeting. Tickets for the buffet are $40 and include an OPEN BAR.

You will not want to miss this special exhibit featuring children interacting with Saddlebreds both in and out of the show ring. Photographs, artifacts and old film footage tell the story of the intimate relationship between horse and child and the devotion and love that lasts a lifetime. The goal of this exhibit is to show the public that the Saddlebred is not only the "peacock of the show ring", but also is a trustworthy "gentle giant" with children. Images and artwork featuring children of all ages riding, grooming, playing and just hanging out with Saddlebreds will be on display. Attend the opening and experience this wonderful exhibit that will make you laugh and will pull at your heartstrings. For the Love of a Horse will be on display through December 30, 2008.

Also, the long awaited unveiling of the Showplace for Saddlebreds will take place during the Museum's reception (see accompanying article on page 3). Tickets for this special event can be obtained with registration for ASHA's Annual Meeting or by calling the Museum at 859-259-2746.
